Introductory Note

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to invite you to participate as an exhibitor or sponsor at the 6th European Conference on Metal Organic Frameworks and Porous Polymers (EuroMOF2025). Building on the success of previous EuroMOF conferences in Potsdam (2015), Delft (2017), Paris (2019), Krakow (2021), and Granada (2023), this edition will take place in the beautiful city of Heraklion, Crete, Greece, from Sunday, 21st to Wednesday, 24th September 2025.

As a major scientific event for showcasing the latest developments in advanced porous materials such as MOFs, COFs, and related solids, EuroMOF2025 will feature distinguished international speakers delivering Plenary, Keynote, and Invited Lectures, offering insights into the current state and future directions of this remarkable and dynamic field of research.

We believe that this event presents an excellent opportunity for your company to showcase innovations and emerging trends to a broad audience of experts and professionals. It also provides a unique chance to enhance your brand's visibility and expand its reach internationally.

We would be delighted to welcome you to Crete, and look forward to your valuable contribution in making EuroMOF2025 an outstanding and successful event.

For any questions regarding sponsorship and exhibition opportunities, please contact the Conference Secretariat:
